UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

SUBJECT : USIB-Approved Statement Authorizing COMUSMACV to Release Certain Military Intelligence Information to Free World Military Assistance Forces, Vietnam, 31 December 1965

REFERENCE : USIB-D-17.7/3, 3 January 1966

1. In approving the subject statement, circulated as an attachment to the reference, USIB agreed that the exception granted COMUSMACV "will be reviewed annually, or if circumstances dictate, at lesser intervals by the United States Intelligence Board, to determine that the exception is still required."

2. The Director, Defense Intelligence Agency, in the attached memorandum, states that the exception is still required and recommends that USIB reaffirm such exception for the duration of hostilities in Vietnam.

USIB Action Requested

3. Please advise the Secretariat by close of business 23 December 1966 of your concurrence in or other views on the recommendation in paragraph 2 of General Carroll's memorandum.
